

Dual Biceps Curl/Triceps Extension

The Nautilus Instinct Dual Biceps Curl / Triceps Extension targets the upper arms with guided flexion and extension movements to strengthen the biceps and triceps. This dual-function machine allows users to train opposing muscle groups efficiently, making it ideal for circuit-based workouts and time-conscious training. Designed with a walk-through frame, intuitive adjustments, and a compact footprint, it's a space-efficient solution for light commercial facilities seeking versatility and performance in one unit.
